From the Principal

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, MISS JOANN!

Today is Miss JoAnn's birthday. I am blessed to call Miss JoAnn my friend as well as my co-worker. I had the privilege of being on the Redeemer staff from 1992-97 and came to cherish Miss JoAnn and her ways. Anyone who is familiar with her knows of her commitment to Redeemer Lutheran Church and School, to the children who attend this school, to their parents, and above all, to her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Her Christ-like attitude of service has been making a positive impact here at 2626 Liberty Boulevard since 1972 when she began her 46 years of employment. Since then, countless former students have returned to see Miss JoAnn and thank her for her love and care. I know she will be embarrassed when she reads this (and maybe even a little angry with me for writing it) because she is a very humble person - she doesn't want the spotlight shined on her - but please join me in thanking God for Miss JoAnn. May God bless her as He continues to bless others through her!

-Mr. Pat Gagan
