Bible Theme for the 2017-2018 School Year:

"Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever." – Hebrews 13:8

What a great week we had last week here at Redeemer celebrating National Lutheran Schools Week. How fun were the special dress days, the volleyball game, the spelling bees, the fun concert by Pastor and Mrs. Horn, the family lunch on Friday and of course the book fair all week.

We are now beginning the second half of the school year, already. This week we will welcome all parents to Redeemer to meet with their child's teacher for Parent/Teacher conferences on Thursday or Friday.

God Bless Us as we move into the second half of the school year.

Mr. J. Violette

Redeemer wants to be fellowshipping in The WORD

We are very excited to make available a Redeemer parent Bible Study.

Deanna Price (Kinder parent) is excited to start a Redeemer parent Bible Study.

Please email her or call her if you are interesting or have any questions: at 310-738-5343 or deanna.price@aspirepublicschools.org

After Deanna finds out who is interested she will come up with a day, time, and place to meet. We hope and pray we can start this group in the next few weeks.

Redeemer Lutheran School wants to use the best time out of our school days as possible. We have had a problem with many students being tardy (coming in after the 8:30 starting bell). It was sent out 3 weeks ago and again last week. We will be beginning tracking tardies starting 3rd quarter, which started today.

The office will have copies of the new tardy policy if you need another copy.

 workers to take a look at Redeemer for their children. Please see the attached paper for more information about how you can get involved.
